No. 5:08-CV-00531-OLG

FINAL JUDGMENT

Upon remand from the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, having considered the submissions of the parties and the entire record, and in accordance with the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, the Court enters this final judgment as follows:

It is ORDERED that final judgment is entered in favor of the Plaintiffs against the United States in the amount of $5,113,523 and in the amount of $25,229 in taxable costs.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs recover post judgment interest on these amounts, from the date of filing of the transcript of the judgment with the Secretary of the Treasury through the day before the mandate of affirmance. Such interest shall be calculated at a rate equal to the weekly average 1-year constant maturity Treasury yield, as published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, for the calendar week preceding the date of this judgment.¹ 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a).

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Application to Establish the "C.L. Special Needs Trust" (Document 136-4) is GRANTED.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Application to Establish the "C.L. Reversionary Trust" (Document 136-5) is GRANTED.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that First Capital Surety and Trust Company is hereby appointed Trustee of the following two trusts:

- i. "C.L. Reversionary Trust";² and
- ii. "C.L. Special Needs Trust."³

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Trustee First Capital Surety and Trust Company shall retain separate segregated accounts for the above trusts and shall not co-mingle the monies and any interests or dividends, with any other funds or assets, including any other funds or assets of Plaintiff C.L.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that within 90 days of this Order, the United States shall deposit into the IOLTA Trust Account of Archuleta & Associates, P.C., for disbursement as follows:

1. $1,666,066.53 to be paid as up-front cash;

¹ As of the week ending ^{May 29} ~~March 20~~, 2015, the applicable interest rate is ^{0.26} ~~0.25~~ percent per annum. See <http://www.federalreserve.gov/releases/h15/current/>.

² The trust document is attached as Exhibit A to this judgment (previously filed as Exhibit A to Document 136-5).

³ The trust document is attached as Exhibit B to this judgment (previously filed as Exhibit A to Document 136-4).

2. The remainder of the judgment ($3,472,685.47) should be paid into the
“C.L. Reversionary Trust.”

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Trustee, First Capital Surety and Trust Company, upon immediate receipt of funds into the “C.L. Reversionary Trust,” shall make the first periodic payment in the amount of $1,014,201.21 from the “C.L. Reversionary Trust” to the “C.L. Special Needs Trust,” which represents the net future care payments from 2010, the date of trial, to present, and the non-economic harms suffered by Plaintiff C.L.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Trustee, First Capital Surety and Trust Company, shall make periodic payments from the “C.L. Reversionary Trust” into the “C.L. Special Needs Trust” every month until C.L.’s death or the corpus of the “C.L. Reversionary Trust” depletes, whichever should occur first. The periodic payments should track Schedule B of the “C.L. Reversionary Trust” attached as Exhibit A to this judgment.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Trustee, First Capital Surety and Trust Company, shall have no power or authority to deviate from the monthly periodic schedule stated above.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Trustee, First Capital Surety and Trust Company, shall make no payments from the “C.L. Reversionary Trust,” except those periodic payments stated above regardless of Plaintiff C.L.’s medical or other needs, and trustee fees. Trustee First Capital Surety and Trust Company shall be entitled to receive said fees based on the trust corpus in accordance with its published fee schedule in effect when services are rendered.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Trustee, First Capital Surety and Trust Company, has the power to make payments from the "C.L. Special Needs Trust," in accordance with the trust document attached to this order for the benefit of C.L. and to pay reasonable and necessary trustee fees.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event funds remain in the trust corpus of the "C.L. Reversionary Trust" at the death of C.L., the Trustee shall pay the entire balance of the "C.L. Reversionary Trust" corpus to the United States of America. The payment shall be made payable to the United States Treasury, to Clarence Lee, et al., and mailed to the following address, or upon written notice, any subsequent change of address: Director, Torts Branch (FTCA Staff), Civil Division, United States Department of Justice, P.O. Box 888, Benjamin Franklin Station, Washington, D.C. 20044.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event funds remain in the trust corpus of the "C.L. Special Needs Trust," at the death of C.L., the corpus should not revert to the United States, but instead be disbursed in accordance with Texas state law on wills and estates.

SIGNED AND ENTERED on the ^{15th} ~~31st~~ day of ^{June} ~~March~~, 2015.

Exhibit A

NOTICE: THE BENEFICIARY AND CERTAIN PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE WELFARE OF THE BENEFICIARY MAY HAVE REMEDIES UNDER SECTION 114.008 OR 142.005 OF THE TEXAS PROPERTY CODE.

EXHIBIT A
TRUST AGREEMENT
FOR THE
C.L. REVERSIONARY TRUST

This Trust Agreement is established as recommended by Clarence Lee, Sr. and Angelia Lee, as next friends of C.L. (as defined herein), a minor and an incapacitated person as defined in Section 142.007 of the Texas Property Code, to the Court in litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division (the “Court”), in Civil Action No. 5:08-CV-00531-OLG, styled, Clarence Lee, Sr. and Angelia Lee, both individually and as next friends of C.L., a minor, Plaintiff vs. United States of America, Defendant (the “Lawsuit”). C.L. was born on May 13, 2003. C.L. is a minor and an incapacitated person as defined in Section 142.007 of the Texas Property Code, and C.L. is a disabled person as defined in the Social Security Act, Section 1614(a)(3), 42 United States Code Section 1382C(a)(3). The Court has specifically reviewed and approved this trust pursuant to the Decree of Court Establishing the C.L. Reversionary Trust to which this Trust Agreement is attached. This Trust Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of a special needs trust pursuant to the provisions of 42 United States Code Section 1396p(d)(4)(A), as amended August 10, 1993, by the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993, Pub. L. 103-55, and shall be construed in accordance with such intent. First Capital Surety & Trust Company (hereinafter referred to as the “Trustee”), a financial institution (as defined by Section 201.101, Texas Finance Code), shall serve as the initial Trustee of this trust.

ARTICLE I.

Trust Estate

The assets and properties described on Schedule A, attached to and incorporated by reference into this Trust Agreement, which are being paid pursuant to the judgment entered by the Court in the Lawsuit are hereby transferred and assigned unto the Trustee by the Court to be held, invested, administered, and distributed by the Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiary (as defined herein) under the terms, provisions, conditions, and limitations set forth in this Trust Agreement. The funds shall at no time become available to the Beneficiary, be placed in his possession, or come within the control of his guardians, except as otherwise provided herein.

ARTICLE II.

Irrevocable

This trust shall be irrevocable and shall not be subject to revocation by the Beneficiary or a guardian of the Beneficiary's estate.

ARTICLE III.

Identification of Beneficiary

The beneficiary of this trust is Clarence Lee, Jr. (herein sometimes referred to as "C.L." and/or the "Beneficiary").

ARTICLE IV.

Distributions and Termination

A. Distributions. During the existence of the trust, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

1. Upon receipt of the assets and properties described on Schedule A, the Trustee shall distribute $ $1,014,201.21 to the Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust. In addition, the Trustee shall distribute monthly payments, to the extent that there are funds remaining in this trust, in accordance with the schedule set forth on Schedule B, attached to and incorporated by reference into this Trust Agreement, to the Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust. The C.L. Special Needs Trust is a special needs trust created by the Court on even date herewith for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The distributions from this trust to the Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust shall be held, invested, administered, and distributed by the Trustee for the Beneficiary pursuant to the terms, provisions, conditions, and limitations set forth in the Trust Agreement for the C.L. Special Needs Trust. No other distributions of income or principal shall be made from this trust at any time, regardless of the needs of the Beneficiary. Any undistributed income shall be accumulated and added to the corpus of this trust.

2. The express purpose of this trust is to provide periodic distributions to the Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust to be used for the Beneficiary's extra and supplemental needs, over and above the benefits he otherwise receives as a result of his handicap or disability from any local, state, or federal governmental source or from private agencies, any of which provide services or benefits to disabled persons. The Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust has complete discretion to pay or use so much or all of the distributions it receives from this trust as such Trustee, in its sole discretion, may determine to be in the best interests of the Beneficiary. It is the intention of the Court and the parties hereto to provide benefits for the Beneficiary without interfering with or reducing the benefits he would be entitled to receive from any state or federal agency, including the State of Texas Health and Human Services Commission or its successor agencies and the United States Social Security Administration, and to maximize the benefits available to him. This trust is explicitly intended not to be a basic support trust, and the trust distributions provided herein are intended to be used by the Trustee of the C.L. Special Needs Trust to supplement other benefits that the Beneficiary might be entitled to receive.

B. Termination of Trust. The trust shall terminate upon the death of the Beneficiary. Upon termination of the trust, to the extent required by applicable law, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets to the State of Texas or such other state that provides Medicaid benefits to the Beneficiary up to an amount equal to the total medical assistance paid on behalf of the Beneficiary under the Medicaid plan of each state that furnished medical assistance on behalf of the Beneficiary; provided, however, that if any assets remain in the C.L. Special Needs Trust upon the death of the Beneficiary, then the assets remaining in the C.L. Special Needs Trust shall be used to make the reimbursement payments to the state's Medicaid plan before the Trustee makes any distributions from this trust for such reimbursement payments to the state's Medicaid plan. If any assets remain in this trust after making the reimbursement payments to the state's Medicaid plan in accordance with the preceding sentence, then the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets to the United States of America by check made payable to the United States Treasury. Unless directed otherwise by the Department of Justice, the Trustee shall mail the check to:

Director, Torts Branch (FTCA Staff)
Civil Division, United States Department of Justice
P.O. Box 888
Benjamin Franklin Station
Washington, DC 20044

Upon making the final distribution to the United States of America, the Trust shall be deemed terminated and the Trustee shall immediately close the account.

ARTICLE V.

Trustee

A. Appointment. The initial Trustee of the trust shall be FIRST CAPITAL SURETY & TRUST COMPANY.

All references in this Trust Agreement to “Trustee” shall refer to the Trustee then serving as such.

B. Successor Trustee. If at any time there is a vacancy in the position of Trustee, the Court shall appoint a substitute or successor Trustee. A successor Trustee may be any financial institution (as defined by Section 201.101, Texas Finance Code) that has trust powers and exists and does business under the laws of the State of Texas or another state in the United States.

C. Trustee Reorganization. Any corporation that shall succeed (by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all or the greater part of the assets of any corporate Trustee shall succeed to all the rights, duties, and powers of such corporate Trustee, as Trustee of this trust.

D. Resignation of Trustee. A Trustee may resign upon application to and order of the Court. Upon filing an application to resign, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of the application to (i) the Beneficiary, or if the Beneficiary is a minor or incapacitated person, to the Beneficiary’s legal guardian or other legal representative, and (ii) the United States of America at the address provided hereinabove or as otherwise directed by the Department of Justice. The Trustee shall continue serving until its resignation is approved by the Court and a successor Trustee is appointed by the Court.

ARTICLE VI.

General Trust Provisions

A. Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive fair and reasonable compensation for services as Trustee to be paid from the trust’s income, corpus, or both on application to and approval of the Court; provided, however, that the Trustee’s compensation shall not exceed the Trustee’s regularly published fee schedule for such services (the Trustee’s current regularly published fee schedule is attached to this Trust Agreement as Schedule C). The Court hereby prospectively approves the Trustee’s fees for as long as such fees do not exceed the Trustee’s regularly published fee schedule; provided that the Court may review any future Trustee’s fees at any time and from time to time on the Court’s own motion or upon the motion of the Trustee or any other party interested in the welfare of the Beneficiary, and upon a hearing of the matter, the Court shall take any action with respect to such fees as the Court may deem appropriate. The Trustee shall also be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust.

B. Bond. No bond or any other security shall be required of any Trustee.

C. Liabilities. This Trust Agreement shall always be construed in favor of the validity of any act or omission of any Trustee, and a Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission except in the case of negligence, bad faith, or fraud. This trust is established pursuant to Court order, and the Trustee shall not be responsible or liable to the Beneficiary or to any other person on account of any action that the Trustee may take (or elect to forego taking) in the Trustee's good faith reliance on any order of the Court.

D. Accountings. The Trustee shall furnish an annual accounting to the Beneficiary, or if the Beneficiary is a minor or incapacitated person, to the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative, and/or the United States of America (at the address provided hereinabove or as otherwise directed by the Department of Justice) upon reasonable demand made therefor. If and to the extent required by the Court or a successor Trustee, an accounting for the administration of the trust shall also be given to the successor Trustee. A successor Trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon such accounting and also in not requiring such an accounting from its predecessor. Subject to any additional requirements imposed by the Court, the Trustee's usual computer statements shall suffice for any accounting.

E. Spendthrift Provision. The Beneficiary shall not have the power to anticipate, encumber, or transfer his interest in the income or corpus of this trust in any manner. No part of the income or corpus of this trust shall be liable for or charged with any debts, contracts, liabilities, or torts of the Beneficiary or subject to any divorce proceeding or seizure or other process by any creditor of the Beneficiary.

F. Situs of Trusts. This trust shall be deemed a Texas trust and shall be governed by the laws of Texas.

G. Powers and Duties of Successor Trustee. Subject to any order of the Court, upon the appointment and qualification of any successor Trustee, the same duties shall devolve on and the same rights, powers, authorities, privileges, and discretions shall inure to the successor Trustee as to the initial Trustee, and no successor Trustee shall have any duty, responsibility, obligation, or liability whatsoever for the acts, defaults, or omissions of any predecessor Trustee.

H. Fiduciary Obligation. The broad powers herein conferred upon the Trustee shall always be exercised only in a fiduciary capacity, and nothing herein shall be construed to limit the fiduciary obligation of the Trustee.

ARTICLE VII.

Powers of Trustee

The Trustee shall have all of the rights, powers, and privileges granted to a trustee by the Texas Trust Code and all of the following rights, powers, and privileges, unless specifically limited by other provisions of this Trust Agreement:

A. Partitions, Distributions. The Trustee shall have full power and authority to make all partitions, divisions, and distributions under this Trust Agreement, by allocating assets and property proportionately in kind or by allocating undivided interests therein in kind. Any partition, division, or distribution made by the Trustee in good faith shall be binding and conclusive on all interested parties.

B. Conservation of Trust Properties. The Trustee may hold, manage and conserve any and all properties transferred to the trust and may take any action that the Trustee may deem necessary or appropriate, including the exercise of all rights and powers that a prudent owner would exercise in managing and conserving properties of a like kind.

C. Dealings With Third Parties. The Trustee may deal with any person or entity regardless of any relationship or identity of any Trustee to or with that person or entity and may hold or invest all or any part of the trust assets in common or undivided interests with that person or entity. Sections 113.052 through 113.055 of the Texas Trust Code shall not apply to the trust except to the extent they cannot be waived.

D. Investment in Securities. The Trustee may buy, sell, or trade any security of any nature (including common trust funds, stocks, stock rights, warrants, bonds, debentures, notes, certificates of interest, certificates of indebtedness, and options) or any other things of value issued by any person, firm, association, trust, corporation, or body politic whatsoever.

E. Selection and Retention of Investments. Any property acquired by the Trustee and at any time constituting any part of the trust shall be deemed a proper investment, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation to dispose of or convert such property. Investments need not be diversified, may be of a wasting nature, and may be made or retained with a view to possible increase in value. The Trustee may invest all funds available for investment at any time that the Trustee may deem advisable in such investments as the Trustee may be permitted to make pursuant to the terms of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee, unless otherwise herein specifically prohibited, shall have as wide a latitude in the selection, retention and making of investments as an individual would have in retaining or investing his or her own funds and shall not be limited to nor bound or governed by any statute or regulation respecting investments.

F. Holding Title to Investments. The Trustee may hold title to investments in the name of the Trustee or a nominee. If the trust owns assets located in a jurisdiction in which the Trustee cannot be authorized to act, then the Trustee may appoint any national bank authorized to act in such jurisdiction as trustee of such assets and confer on such trustee any power as may be necessary in the premises, but, in any event, such trustee shall account for all net income and/or net proceeds from the sale of such assets to the Trustee acting hereunder.

G. General Powers. The Trustee may sell, exchange, alter, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of trust property; borrow any sum believed by the Trustee to be necessary or desirable for protecting the trust or any part thereof, making any income or corpus payment or distribution, or for any other purpose which in the Trustee's opinion may be appropriate; pay all reasonable expenses; execute obligations, negotiable and nonnegotiable; join in, by deposit, pledge, or otherwise, any plan of reorganization or readjustment of any investments of the trust, and vest in a protective committee or other legal entity such power as in the Trustee's opinion may be desirable; and sell for cash and/or credit all or any part of the trust estate.

H. Power to Vote Stock. The Trustee may vote shares of stock in person or by proxy, with or without power of substitution; exercise and perform any and all rights, privileges, and powers inuring to the holder of any stock or security comprising at any time a part of the trust, and exercise by agent or attorney-in-fact any right appurtenant to any property or matter in which the trust may be interested.

I. Protection of the Trust Estate. The Trustee may protect, perfect and defend the title to any trust property; sue and be sued; enforce any bonds, mortgages or other obligations or liens owned by the trust; compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the trust; waive or release rights of any kind; and abandon any property considered by the Trustee to be worthless.

J. Notes, Mortgages, and Foreclosures. The Trustee may, at any time, reduce the rate of interest payable on any bond, note, or other security owned by the trust; continue mortgages upon and after maturity, with or without renewal, or extend the same upon such terms as seem advisable to the Trustee without reference to the value of the security at the time of such continuance; modify or release any guaranty or mortgage; as an incident to collection of any bond or note, foreclose and bid in the property at foreclosure sale, acquire the property by deed from the mortgagor or obligor without foreclosure and retain the property so bid in or taken over without foreclosure.

K. Insurance. The Trustee may carry such insurance coverage (in stock companies or in mutual companies), including public liability and property damage for such hazards and in such amounts as the Trustee may deem advisable.

L. Employ and Compensate Agents and Representatives. The Trustee may employ and compensate agents and other employees, including attorneys, accountants, and investment advisers, and may delegate to them any and all discretions and powers. The Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission of an agent if the agent was selected and retained by the Trustee with due care and the Trustee neither knew nor should have known that the agent or representative was breaching his or her duties.

M. Establish and Maintain Reserves. Out of rents, profits, or other income received, the Trustee may set up reserves for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, repairs, improvements, depletion, depreciation, obsolescence, and general maintenance of buildings or other property.

N. Power to Determine Income and Corpus. Stock dividends and capital gains shall be treated as corpus. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided, the Trustee shall determine the manner in which expenses are to be borne and receipts credited between corpus and income and what shall constitute income, net income, and corpus. In determining such matters, the Trustee may give consideration to, but shall not be bound by, the provisions of the Texas Trust Code.

O. Liability of Third Party. No purchaser at any sale made by the Trustee or person dealing with the Trustee is obliged to see to the application of any money or property paid or delivered to the Trustee or to inquire into the expediency or propriety of, or the authority of the Trustee to enter into and consummate, any transaction.

P. Documents. The Trustee may execute and deliver any deeds, conveyances, assignments, leases, contracts, stock or security transfer powers, or any other written instrument of any character appropriate to any of the powers or duties herein conferred upon the Trustee.

Q. Powers Cumulative. Except as herein otherwise provided, the powers conferred upon the Trustee shall not be construed as a limitation of any authority conferred by law, but as in addition thereto.

ARTICLE VIII.

Definitions and General Provisions

A. Statutory References. All statutory references include subsequent amendments and corresponding provisions of any subsequently enacted laws.

B. Precedence of Trust. This trust shall take precedence over any existing law or statute concerning minors, incapacitated persons, or their property, and this trust shall continue in full force and effect until terminated or revoked as provided herein, notwithstanding the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the Beneficiary, or the attainment of the age of majority by the Beneficiary.

C. Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, and successors of the parties.

D. Inception of Trust. This trust shall become effective upon (1) the entry of the decree to which this Trust Agreement is attached, (2) the transfer of any portion of the property described on Schedule A to the Trustee, and (3) the Trustee's acceptance of the trust which shall be evidenced by the signature below of the appropriate officer of the Trustee.

SIGNED this 1st day of June ²⁰¹⁵~~2014~~.

*Payments (including the initial lump sum and first monthly payment) shall commence the first day of the first month following approval of this schedule by the court. The scheduled monthly payment shall apply for twelve (12) consecutive months according to the schedule. Henceforth, after each twelve (12) consecutive monthly payments have been paid, the next twelve (12) months payment schedule shall apply, so forth and so on. This schedule will continue until the date of the Plaintiff's (C.L.'s) death or the depletion of the trust corpus, whichever occurs first. Aforementioned Initial lump sum and monthly payments shall be made payable to The C.L. Special Needs Trust directly in the absence of a court order to the contrary.

NOTICE: THE BENEFICIARY AND CERTAIN PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE WELFARE OF THE BENEFICIARY MAY HAVE REMEDIES UNDER SECTION 114.008 OR 142.005 OF THE TEXAS PROPERTY CODE.

EXHIBIT B
FOR THE
C.L. SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST

This Trust Agreement is established as recommended by Clarence Lee, Sr. and Angelia Lee, as next friends of C.L. (as defined herein), a minor and an incapacitated person as defined in Section 142.007 of the Texas Property Code, to the Court in litigation pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division (the "Court"), in Civil Action No. 5:08-CV-00531-OLG, styled, Clarence Lee, Sr. and Angelia Lee, both individually and as next friends of C.L., a minor, Plaintiff vs. United States of America, Defendant (the "Lawsuit"). C.L. was born on May 13, 2003. C.L. is a minor and an incapacitated person as defined in Section 142.007 of the Texas Property Code, and C.L. is a disabled person as defined in the Social Security Act, Section 1614(a)(3), 42 United States Code Section 1382C(a)(3). The Court has specifically reviewed and approved this trust pursuant to the Decree of Court Establishing the C.L. Special Needs Trust to which this Trust Agreement is attached. This Trust Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of a special needs trust pursuant to the provisions of 42 United States Code Section 1396p(d)(4)(A), as amended August 10, 1993, by the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993, Pub. L. 103-55, and shall be construed in accordance with such intent. First Capital Surety & Trust Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Trustee"), a financial institution (as defined by Section 201.101, Texas Finance Code), shall serve as the initial Trustee of this trust.

ARTICLE I.

Trust Estate

The assets and properties described on Schedule A, attached to and incorporated by reference into this Trust Agreement, which are being paid pursuant to the judgment entered by the Court in the Lawsuit, are hereby transferred and assigned unto the Trustee by the Court to be held, invested, administered, and distributed by the Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiary (as defined herein) under the terms, provisions, conditions, and limitations set forth in this instrument. The funds shall at no time become available to the Beneficiary, be placed in his possession, or come within the control of his guardians, except as otherwise provided herein.

ARTICLE II.

Irrevocable

This trust shall be irrevocable and shall not be subject to revocation by the Beneficiary or a guardian of the Beneficiary's estate.

ARTICLE III.

Identification of Beneficiary

The beneficiary of this trust is Clarence Lee, Jr. (herein sometimes referred to as "C.L." and/or the "Beneficiary").

ARTICLE IV.

Distributions and Termination

A. Purpose of Trust. The principal purpose and intent of the Court and the parties hereto is to provide a system for management, investment, and disbursement of the judgment proceeds for the benefit of the Beneficiary. The secondary intention of the Court and the parties hereto is to provide for the continuing conservation and enhancement of the judgment proceeds to supplement all other financial and service benefits to which the Beneficiary might be eligible as a result of his disability from any local, county, state, or federal agency, or through any public or private profit or nonprofit corporations or agencies.

1. It is not the intent of the Court or parties hereto to place the judgment proceeds in trust for the purpose of qualifying the Beneficiary for state welfare benefits. However, it is likely that the judgment proceeds will be insufficient to meet all of the Beneficiary's possible future disability related needs for the remainder of his life. Thus, it is possible that such benefits may be sought in the future, notwithstanding the assets that have been directed by the Court to this supplemental and discretionary trust.

2. This trust is being established at the specific direction of the Court, and therefore the assets directed to this trust by the Court should not be deemed to have been or to be available to the Beneficiary. This trust is established under the jurisdiction, at the direction, and with the specific approval of the Court without transfer of ownership of the judgment proceeds to the Beneficiary or his legal guardians.

3. It is the intention of the Court and the parties hereto to provide benefits for the Beneficiary without interfering with or reducing the benefits he would be entitled to receive from any state or federal agency, including the State of Texas Health and Human Services Commission or its successor agencies and the United States Social Security Administration, and to maximize the benefits available to him. This trust is explicitly intended to be a discretionary trust and not a basic support trust, and the trust assets are intended to be used to supplement other benefits that the Beneficiary might be entitled to receive.

4. Further, it is not the intent of this Court that the judgment proceeds shall be used to excuse the obligations of any person to provide for the Beneficiary's continuing maintenance and basic support under the laws of the State of Texas. Payments from this trust are intended to be supplemental to such support obligations and shall not supplant the basic support obligations as determined by the laws of the State of Texas.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is acknowledged that the Trustee is neither licensed nor skilled in the field of social services and/or governmental assistance programs. The Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative, if any, shall be responsible for identifying programs that may be of social, financial, developmental, or other assistance to the Beneficiary, including seeking the assistance of federal, state, and local agencies that have been established to help the handicapped or disabled, and other similar resources. The Trustee may cooperate with and assist the Beneficiary's legal guardians or other legal representative, if any, but shall have no duty or responsibility to determine which programs are available to the Beneficiary. The Trustee shall not in any event be liable to the Beneficiary or any other party with respect to any aspect of the Beneficiary's eligibility for federal, state, or local public assistance benefits or programs, including, but not limited to, the failure to identify each and every program or resource that might be available to the Beneficiary on account of any handicap or disability.

B. Distributions. The Trustee shall have complete discretion to pay or use so much or all of the net income and/or corpus of the trust as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may determine, to the legal or natural guardian or person having custody of the Beneficiary, or by expending such amounts directly to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary without the intervention of any legal guardian or other legal representative of the Beneficiary. Any undistributed income shall be accumulated and added to the corpus of the trust. All income and corpus distributed to the Beneficiary and all undistributed income and corpus held in this trust shall be considered as the separate property, not the community property, of the Beneficiary to the extent permitted under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

1. In exercising the Trustee's discretion in making distributions from the net income and/or corpus of the trust, it is the intent, but not the direction, of this Court, that the Beneficiary live in pleasant, healthy, and comfortable surroundings and that the net income and/or corpus of the trust be paid out or used by the Trustee to whatever extent is appropriate to make available to the Beneficiary the best facilities and provisions for his health, education, and welfare that shall, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, be deemed reasonable, desirable, and appropriate. The express purpose of this trust is to provide for the Beneficiary's extra and supplemental needs, over and above the benefits he otherwise receives as a result of his handicap or disability from any local, state, or federal governmental source or from private agencies, any of which provide services or benefits to disabled persons. By way of illustration, the Trustee may purchase those goods or services which shall enhance the Beneficiary's development and welfare and provide for his special needs and/or supplemental needs, including but not limited to:

- a. Dental care;
- b. Unreimbursable medical expenses, including plastic and reconstructive surgery, diagnostic work and treatment, rehabilitative training and experimental medical services;
- c. Ophthalmic and auditory care;
- d. Psychological support services;
- e. Recreation, cultural experiences, and transportation of the Beneficiary;
- f. Expenditures to foster the interests, talents and hobbies of the Beneficiary;
- g. Personal property and services which will make life more comfortable and enjoyable for the Beneficiary but will not defeat the Beneficiary's eligibility for public assistance;
- h. Funeral and burial costs;
- i. Personal care needs;
- j. Supplemental nursing care;
- k. Physical therapy or rehabilitation;

- l. Similar care which other assistance programs may not otherwise provide;
- m. Entertainment items (such as a television, DVD player, MP3 player, or the like);
- n. Evaluations of training and educational programs;
- o. Expenditures to engage therapists and others to provide physical, occupational, aquatic, or other therapy or procedures for the Beneficiary, either at the Beneficiary's home or at the therapist's (or other provider's) regular office or treatment center;
- p. Pay nutritionists, case workers, and other health or medical advisors; and
- q. Pay nurses, nurses' aides, companion sitters or others to care for the Beneficiary.

2. During periods of time that the Beneficiary is not eligible for and/or has not applied for means-tested governmental public assistance benefits (such as SSI, Medicaid, etc.), the Trustee shall have sole and absolute discretion as to the amount, timing, and purposes of any distributions from the net income and/or corpus of the trust for the benefit of the Beneficiary. On the other hand, during periods of time that the Beneficiary is receiving means-tested governmental public assistance benefits, the Trustee is specifically prohibited from expending any of the net income or corpus of the trust for any property, assistance, services, benefits, or medical care that is or otherwise would be available to the Beneficiary from any governmental source or from any insurance carrier required to cover the Beneficiary if, and only if, an application for such property, assistance, services, benefits, or medical care has been filed for the Beneficiary, or if he is receiving such assistance from a source that requires such restriction by its rules. In such case, and if the Beneficiary has applied for and/or is receiving assistance that requires such limitation, the Trustee may use trust property to supplement, but not to supplant, services, benefits, assistance, and medical care being received by the Beneficiary through any governmental resource so requiring the limitation.

3. It is recognized that there may be circumstances during the existence of this trust wherein it may be in the best interests of the Beneficiary to forfeit or forego the receipt of means-tested governmental public assistance benefits in order to avoid the restrictions on trust distributions and other requirements involved in the administration of a special needs trust. The responsibility for making this determination (as to whether it is in the Beneficiary's best interests to forfeit or forego means-tested governmental public assistance benefits for which the Beneficiary may be eligible) shall rest solely with the Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative and not with the Trustee. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon written evidence that the Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative has complied with any notice requirements to the appropriate administrative agencies that the Beneficiary is ineligible for or voluntarily elects not to apply for and/or receive any means-tested governmental public benefits. The Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine the written documentation necessary to establish that the Beneficiary is not receiving any means-tested governmental public assistance benefits. Upon receipt of such written evidence satisfactory to the Trustee, the Trustee may administer the trust as a discretionary trust (and not as a special needs trust) until such time as (i) the Trustee receives written information that the Beneficiary (or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative) has applied for or is receiving means-tested governmental public assistance benefits or (ii) the trust terminates.

4. In determining distributions to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary, the Trustee may consider all of the facts and circumstances in existence at the time of the Trustee's determination, including but not limited to: (i) the value of the assets of the trust; (ii) the standard of living to which the Beneficiary shall have been accustomed prior to the creation of the trust; (iii) any known resources of the Beneficiary; (iv) the ability of any person who is legally obligated to support the Beneficiary to do so; and (v) the ability of the Beneficiary to earn funds for the Beneficiary's own support and maintenance.

5. The Trustee may pay any premiums, co-payments, and/or deductibles for health care insurance for the Beneficiary.

6. The Trustee shall be authorized to pay any income tax liability of the Beneficiary which results from income received by the trust. The funds used to pay this income tax liability shall be paid directly to the appropriate taxing authority and shall not be available to the Beneficiary or be counted as a disqualifying resource against the Beneficiary. The Beneficiary shall not have any right to or interest in any of these funds paid by the Trustee. Further, these funds are not a resource of the Beneficiary and should not be treated as a distribution of income for purposes of medical assistance qualification or continuation.

C. Termination of Trust. The trust shall terminate upon the death of the Beneficiary. Upon termination of the trust, to the extent required by applicable law, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets to the State of Texas or such other state that provides Medicaid benefits to the Beneficiary up to an amount equal to the total medical assistance paid on behalf of the Beneficiary under the Medicaid plan of each state that furnished medical assistance on behalf of the Beneficiary. If assets remain in the trust after making the reimbursement payments to the state's Medicaid plan in accordance with the preceding sentence, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets to the personal representative of the Beneficiary's estate to be administered as a part of the Beneficiary's general probate estate.

ARTICLE V.

Trustee

A. Appointment. The initial Trustee of the trust shall be FIRST CAPITAL SURETY & TRUST COMPANY.

All references in this instrument to "Trustee" shall refer to the Trustee then serving as such.

B. Successor Trustee. If at any time there is a vacancy in the position of Trustee, the Court shall appoint a substitute or successor Trustee. A successor Trustee may be any financial institution (as defined by Section 201.101, Texas Finance Code) that has trust powers and exists and does business under the laws of the State of Texas or another state in the United States.

C. Trustee Reorganization. Any corporation that shall succeed (by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all or the greater part of the assets of any corporate Trustee shall succeed to all the rights, duties, and powers of such corporate Trustee, as Trustee of this trust.

D. Resignation of Trustee. A Trustee may resign upon application to and order of the Court. Upon filing an application to resign, the Trustee shall immediately provide a copy of the application to the Beneficiary, or if the Beneficiary is a minor or incapacitated person, to the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative. The Trustee shall continue serving until its resignation is approved by the Court.

ARTICLE VI.

General Trust Provisions

A. Compensation. The Trustee shall be entitled to receive fair and reasonable compensation for services as Trustee to be paid from the trust's income, corpus, or both on application to and approval of the Court; provided, however, that the Trustee's compensation shall not exceed the Trustee's regularly published fee schedule for such services (the Trustee's current regularly published fee schedule is attached to this Trust Agreement as Schedule C). The Court hereby prospectively approves the Trustee's fees for as long as such fees do not exceed the Trustee's regularly published fee schedule; provided that the Court may review any future Trustee's fees at any time and from time to time on the Court's own motion or upon the motion of the Trustee or any other party interested in the welfare of the Beneficiary, and upon a hearing of the matter, the Court shall take any action with respect to such fees as the Court may deem appropriate. The Trustee shall also be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust.

B. Bond. No bond or any other security shall be required of any Trustee.

C. Liabilities. This instrument shall always be construed in favor of the validity of any act or omission of any Trustee, and a Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission except in the case of negligence, bad faith, or fraud. This trust is established pursuant to Court order, and the Trustee shall not be responsible or liable to the Beneficiary or to any other person on account of any action that the Trustee may take (or elect to forego taking) in the Trustee's good faith reliance on any order of the Court.

D. Accountings. The Trustee shall furnish an annual accounting to the Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative upon reasonable demand made therefor. If and to the extent required by the Court or a successor Trustee, an accounting for the administration of the trust shall also be given to the successor Trustee. A successor Trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon such accounting and also in not requiring such an accounting from its predecessor. Subject to any additional requirements imposed by the Court, the Trustee's usual computer statements shall suffice for any accounting.

E. Spendthrift Provision. The Beneficiary shall not have the power to anticipate, encumber, or transfer his interest in the income or corpus of this trust in any manner. No part of the income or corpus of this trust shall be liable for or charged with any debts, contracts, liabilities, or torts of the Beneficiary or subject to any divorce proceeding or seizure or other process by any creditor of the Beneficiary.

F. Situs of Trusts. This trust shall be deemed a Texas trust and shall be governed by the laws of Texas.

G. Powers and Duties of Successor Trustee. Subject to any order of the Court, upon the appointment and qualification of any successor Trustee, the same duties shall devolve on and the same rights, powers, authorities, privileges, and discretions shall inure to the successor Trustee as to the initial Trustee, and no successor Trustee shall have any duty, responsibility, obligation, or liability whatsoever for the acts, defaults, or omissions of any predecessor Trustee.

H. Fiduciary Obligation. The broad powers herein conferred upon the Trustee shall always be exercised only in a fiduciary capacity, and nothing herein shall be construed to limit the fiduciary obligation of the Trustee.

ARTICLE VII.

Powers of Trustee

The Trustee shall have all of the rights, powers, and privileges granted to a trustee by the Texas Trust Code and all of the following rights, powers, and privileges, unless specifically limited by other provisions of this instrument:

A. Partitions, Distributions. The Trustee shall have full power and authority to make all partitions, divisions, and distributions under this instrument, by allocating assets and property proportionately in kind or by allocating undivided interests therein in kind. Any partition, division, or distribution made by the Trustee in good faith shall be binding and conclusive on all interested parties.

B. Methods of Payment. Any distribution directed to be made to the Beneficiary may be made to or for the benefit of the beneficiary in any manner authorized by Texas Property Code Section 142.005 that the Trustee deems advisable, including payment to the legal or natural guardian or person having custody of the Beneficiary, or payment directly to the Beneficiary or for the benefit, support, or maintenance of the Beneficiary without the intervention of any legal guardian or other legal representative of the Beneficiary. Any distribution under this paragraph shall be a full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that distribution.

C. Conservation of Trust Properties. The Trustee may hold, manage and conserve any and all properties transferred to the trust and may take any action that the Trustee may deem necessary or appropriate, including the exercise of all rights and powers that a prudent owner would exercise in managing and conserving properties of a like kind.

D. Dealings With Third Parties. The Trustee may deal with any person or entity regardless of any relationship or identity of any Trustee to or with that person or entity and may hold or invest all or any part of the trust assets in common or undivided interests with that person or entity. Sections 113.052 through 113.055 of the Texas Trust Code shall not apply to the trust except to the extent they cannot be waived.

E. Investment in Securities. The Trustee may buy, sell, or trade any security of any nature (including common trust funds, stocks, stock rights, warrants, bonds, debentures, notes, certificates of interest, certificates of indebtedness, and options) or any other things of value issued by any person, firm, association, trust, corporation, or body politic whatsoever.

F. Distributions to Purchase a Vehicle. The Trustee may, within its sole discretion, at any time and from time to time, make distributions from the net income and/or principal of the Trust for the purpose of purchasing or otherwise acquiring a vehicle suitable for the transportation of the Beneficiary and the legal or natural guardian or person having custody of the Beneficiary. The Trustee may, within its sole discretion, make distributions from the income and/or principal of the Trust for the purpose of replacing any such vehicle with a comparable vehicle at any time and from time to time, but the cost of any replacement vehicle shall be reduced by the trade-in value of the previous vehicle. The vehicle shall be registered and titled either in the name of the Beneficiary or in the name of a parent or legal guardian of the Beneficiary. The Trustee may pay all expenses of repairs, routine maintenance, personal property taxes, and insurance on the vehicle from the net income and/or principal of the Trust; provided, that, such payments will not jeopardize the Beneficiary's eligibility for Medicaid, SSI, or any other welfare and/or governmental benefits in which the best interests of the Beneficiary should be maintained and preserved.

G. Investment in Undivided Interests. The Trustee may invest in one or more assets, properties, or consolidated funds, in whole or in part, as the Trustee may deem advisable.

H. Investment in Partnerships. The Trustee may purchase or otherwise acquire an interest in any partnership conducting a lawful business, transfer trust property to any partnership which will conduct or is conducting any lawful business, or become either a general or limited partner of any such partnership.

I. Selection and Retention of Investments. Any property acquired by the Trustee and at any time constituting any part of the trust shall be deemed a proper investment, and the Trustee shall be under no obligation to dispose of or convert such property. Investments need not be diversified, may be of a wasting nature, and may be made or retained with a view to possible increase in value. The Trustee may invest all funds available for investment at any time that the Trustee may deem advisable in such investments as the Trustee may be permitted to make pursuant to the terms of this instrument. The Trustee, unless otherwise herein specifically prohibited, shall have as wide a latitude in the selection, retention and making of investments as an individual would have in retaining or investing his or her own funds and shall not be limited to nor bound or governed by any statute or regulation respecting investments.

J. Holding Title to Investments. The Trustee may hold title to investments in the name of the Trustee or a nominee. If the trust owns assets located in a jurisdiction in which the Trustee cannot be authorized to act, then the Trustee may appoint any national bank authorized to act in such jurisdiction as trustee of such assets and confer on such trustee any power as may be necessary in the premises, but, in any event, such trustee shall account for all net income and/or net proceeds from the sale of such assets to the Trustee acting hereunder.

K. General Powers. The Trustee may sell, exchange, alter, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of trust property; borrow any sum believed by the Trustee to be necessary or desirable for protecting the trust or any part thereof, making any income or corpus payment or distribution, or for any other purpose which in the Trustee's opinion may be appropriate; pay all reasonable expenses; execute obligations, negotiable and nonnegotiable; join in, by deposit, pledge, or otherwise, any plan of reorganization or readjustment of any investments of the trust, and vest in a protective committee or other legal entity such power as in the Trustee's opinion may be desirable; and sell for cash and/or credit all or any part of the trust estate.

L. Power to Vote Stock. The Trustee may vote shares of stock in person or by proxy, with or without power of substitution; exercise and perform any and all rights, privileges, and powers inuring to the holder of any stock or security comprising at any time a part of the trust, and exercise by agent or attorney-in-fact any right appurtenant to any property or matter in which the trust may be interested.

M. Protection of the Trust Estate. The Trustee may protect, perfect and defend the title to any trust property; sue and be sued; enforce any bonds, mortgages or other obligations or liens owned by the trust; compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the trust; waive or release rights of any kind; and abandon any property considered by the Trustee to be worthless.

N. Notes, Mortgages, and Foreclosures. The Trustee may, at any time, reduce the rate of interest payable on any bond, note, or other security owned by the trust; continue mortgages upon and after maturity, with or without renewal, or extend the same upon such terms as seem advisable to the Trustee without reference to the value of the security at the time of such continuance; modify or release any guaranty or mortgage; as an incident to collection of any bond or note, foreclose and bid in the property at foreclosure sale, acquire the property by deed from the mortgagor or obligor without foreclosure and retain the property so bid in or taken over without foreclosure.

O. Insurance. The Trustee may carry such insurance coverage (in stock companies or in mutual companies), including public liability, property damage, and life insurance, for such hazards and in such amounts as the Trustee may deem advisable.

P. Employ and Compensate Agents and Representatives. The Trustee may employ and compensate agents and other employees, including attorneys, accountants, and investment advisers, and may delegate to them any and all discretions and powers. The Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission of an agent if the agent was selected and retained by the Trustee with due care and the Trustee neither knew nor should have known that the agent or representative was breaching his or her duties.

Q. Establish and Maintain Reserves. Out of rents, profits, or other income received, the Trustee may set up reserves for taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, repairs, improvements, depletion, depreciation, obsolescence, and general maintenance of buildings or other property.

R. Power to Determine Income and Corpus. Stock dividends and capital gains shall be treated as corpus. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided, the Trustee shall determine the manner in which expenses are to be borne and receipts credited between corpus and income and what shall constitute income, net income, and corpus. In determining such matters, the Trustee may give consideration to, but shall not be bound by, the provisions of the Texas Trust Code.

S. Liability of Third Party. No purchaser at any sale made by the Trustee or person dealing with the Trustee is obliged to see to the application of any money or property paid or delivered to the Trustee or to inquire into the expediency or propriety of, or the authority of the Trustee to enter into and consummate, any transaction.

T. Documents. The Trustee may execute and deliver any deeds, conveyances, assignments, leases, contracts, stock or security transfer powers, or any other written instrument of any character appropriate to any of the powers or duties herein conferred upon the Trustee.

U. Powers Cumulative. Except as herein otherwise provided, the powers conferred upon the Trustee shall not be construed as a limitation of any authority conferred by law, but as in addition thereto.

ARTICLE VIII.

Definitions and General Provisions

A. Statutory References. All statutory references include subsequent amendments and corresponding provisions of any subsequently enacted laws.

B. Precedence of Trust. This trust shall take precedence over any existing law or statute concerning minors, incapacitated persons, or their property, and this trust shall continue in full force and effect until terminated or revoked as provided herein, notwithstanding the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the Beneficiary, or the attainment of the age of majority by the Beneficiary.

C. Binding Effect. This trust agreement shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, and successors of the parties.

D. Consideration of Requests of the Beneficiary or Legal Guardian. The Trustee shall confer with the Beneficiary, or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative if the Beneficiary is a minor or incapacitated person, from time to time concerning the needs of the Beneficiary and shall consider (but shall not be bound by) the requests of the Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's legal guardian or other legal representative, as the case may be, concerning the administration of the trust, including, but not limited to, the investment and distribution of the trust assets.

E. Inception of Trust. This trust shall become effective upon (1) the entry of the decree to which this trust agreement is attached, (2) the transfer of any portion of the property described on Schedule A to the Trustee, and (3) the Trustee's acceptance of the trust which shall be evidenced by the signature below of the appropriate officer of the Trustee.

SIGNED this 1st day of June, ²⁰¹⁵~~2014~~.

*Payments (including the initial lump sum and first monthly payment) shall commence the first day of the first month following approval of this schedule by the court. The scheduled monthly payment shall apply for twelve (12) consecutive months according to the schedule. Henceforth, after each twelve (12) consecutive monthly payments have been paid, the next twelve (12) months payment schedule shall apply, so forth and so on. This schedule will continue until the date of the Plaintiffs' (C.L.'s) death or the depletion of the trust corpus, whichever occurs first. Aforementioned initial lump sum and monthly payments shall be made payable to The C.L. Special Needs Trust directly in the absence of a court order to the contrary.
